(c) For the purposes of this covenant, eaves, steps, and open porches shall not be considered as a part of a building, provided however, that this shall not be construed to permit any portion of a building on a lot to encroach upon another lot.

17. Easement for installation and maintenance of utilities and drainage facilities are reserved as shown on the recorded plat and over the rear five feet of each lot. Within these easements, no structure, planting or other material shall be placed or permitted to remain which may interfere or damage the installation and maintenance of utilities, or which may change the direction of flow of drainage channels in the easements, or which may obstruct or retard the flow of water through drainage channels in the easements. The easement area of each lot and all improvements in it shall be maintained continuously by the owner of the lot, except for those improvements for which a public authority or utility company is responsible.

18. No fence, wall, hedge or shrub planting which obstructs sight lines at elevations between 2 and 6 feet above the roadways shall be placed or permitted to remain on any corner lot within the triangular area formed by the street property lines and a line connecting them at points 25 feet from the intersection of the street lines, or in the case of a founded property corner from the intersection of the street property lines extended. The same sight line limitations shall apply on any lot within 10 feet from the intersection of a street property line with the edge of a driveway or alley pavement. No tree shall be permitted to remain within such distances of such intersections unless the foliage line is maintained at sufficient height to prevent obstruction of such sight lines.

19. ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL COMMITTEE. MEMBERSHIP. The Architectural Control Committee is composed of M. H. PODELL, R. J. MATHOT and ROGER J. STRAWICK, 2460 Park Blvd., Palo Alto, California. A majority of the committee may designate a representative to act for it. In the event of death or resignation of any member of the committee, the remaining members shall have full authority to designate a successor. Neither the members of the committee, nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. At any time, the then record owners of a majority of the lots shall have the power through a duly recorded written instrument to change the membership of the committee or to withdraw from the committee or restore to it any of its powers and duties.

20. PROCEDURE. The committee's approval or disapproval as required in these covenants shall be in writing. In the event the committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove within 30 days after plans and specifications have been submitted to it, or in any event, if no suit to enjoin the construction has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, approval will not be required and the related covenants shall be deemed to have been fully completed with.

The Owner, or its committee appointed by the owner, in approving plans and specifications, will favor generally accepted standard of Northern California, residential designs, and where dwellings have been erected will favor the particular design trend of said buildings in the immediate neighborhood in which construction is proposed. Said Owner or said committee may review style, materials of construction, color and texture of exterior surfaces to ascertain that the proposed construction will harmonize with other buildings in the immediate neighborhood.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that every conveyance of said real property and shall hereafter be made and accepted and said property is and shall hereinafter be granted only upon and subject to the express conditions, provisions, restrictions, and covenants herein referred to and shall bind the parties hereto and their heirs, devisees, legatees, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

Such conditions are imposed upon said real property as an obligation or charge against the same for the benefit of each and every lot hereinabove described, and the owner and owners thereof, and with the right of enforcement of said condition and each of them vested in the owner or owners of any one or more of said parcels of real property.

The foregoing restrictions and covenants shall terminate and be of no further force and effect after 35 years from date hereof, but will automatically be renewed thereafter for successive periods of ten years unless the owners of 51% of the above described parcels of real property shall file a protest or a relinquishment of restrictions in the office of the County Recorder within the year preceding the year 1999, or any other successive date as provided therein.

EXCEPT as otherwise provided herein, if any owner of a lot or lots in said tract, or any persons claiming under them, or their heirs, successors, or assigns of such person, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the conditions provided for herein, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any one or more of said lots in said tract to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against any such violator either to prevent him from so doing or to recover damages for such violation or both.

It is not the intention of owner to create hereby, a condition subsequent or a condition of forfeiture, or any implied condition of forfeiture, or possibility of reverter in the event of any violation or any of the provisions herein set forth, but it is the intention that the remedy for the enforcement of this plan of covenants and restrictions shall be an action for injunction to prevent the violation thereof, or by action for damages or for both. Said action or actions shall inure to and pass with each and every of said lots in tract for the mutual benefit of the subsequent owner or owners thereof and their successors and assigns, excepting however, that no action for damages nor for injunction shall lie against, nor shall any liability accrue on the part of or against American Guild Homes, a general partnership, or stockholders or their successors in interest of said partnership, by reason of any violation on their part of any of the provisions herein set forth. In accordance with the foregoing restrictions and provisions, owner hereby expressly disclaims any right whether express or implied, or re-entry upon the said property to enforce the provisions hereof, or to reversion of title thereto.

That in the event any covenant or condition herein contained is invalid, or is held to be invalid or void by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or voidness shall in no way affect any valid covenant or condition herein contained.

That no waiver of a breach of any of the covenants, agreements, restrictions, and conditions herein contained shall be construed to permit a waiver of any succeeding breach or the same or any other covenants, agreements, restrictions or conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said Owner has caused this instrument to be duly executed the day and year first hereinabove written.
